Class of 2019 Commencement

Class of 2019:

- The Maryvale community extends its sincere congratulations to our 76 seniors who graduated this morning. Together, the Class of 2019 earned nearly $13.5 million in academic scholarships and merit awards to colleges and universities across the country. We will miss this spirited, talented and kind group of girls!
- Congratulations as well to Visual Arts Department Chair Kim Kozak, who received the Carol Malone Excellence in Teaching Award during today's Commencement Ceremony!

Class of 2023:

- The 39 members of the Class of 2023 were commemorated on Thursday morning during the annual Eighth Grade Celebration. The girls' musical talents and impressive academic achievements were showcased during this special "moving-up" ceremony. Congratulations, girls!
- Congratulations as well to Jane Poe '23, this year's recipient of the Abby Boehm '98 Merit Award!

College Counseling News:

- On behalf of the entire Maryvale community, we would like to extend our best wishes to College Counselor Laurel Weijer, who will be moving out of state with her family. We are grateful for her contributions and dedication to Maryvale.
- Maryvale is thrilled to announce that Lindsey Duerr will be joining our College Counseling Department as a counselor beginning this summer. Lindsey comes to Maryvale from Keith Country Day School in Illinois, where she served as the director of admissions and college counseling. She also brings more than 10 years of experience in college admissions and counseling from colleges and universities including Beloit College, Sweet Briar College, The College of Wooster and Wittenberg University. Welcome, Lindsey!
